

STUDENT FELLOW COMMUNITY PARTNER OUTREACH GUIDE

Student Impact Challenge (S.I.C.) - “Leave It Better Than You Found It”

MISSION	Build a statewide network of community partners that helps students ages 10-20 learn about, register for, and participate in the Student Impact Challenge.
GOAL	Recruit organizations that can distribute the opportunity to students, parents, educators, businesses, and community leaders across New York State.
PARTNER ASK	Become an Official Community Partner. No financial commitment is required. Partners can help by sharing registration information, posting on social media, emailing members, displaying flyers, encouraging students, or connecting participating students with local businesses.

What the Fellow Should Communicate

The Student Impact Challenge is a statewide youth initiative presented and operated by TrendCatch Gives Back Inc., a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Young people ages 10-20 are encouraged to engage with local businesses, identify real community or business problems, and propose solutions.

More than $100,000 in scholarships, cash and prizes are available across the initiative, with recognition and opportunities for students, schools and educators. Registration is open now at FrantzCoutard.com. Entrepreneur and Shark Tank investor Daymond John has agreed to meet the winners.

The purpose of outreach is not primarily fundraising. The first goal is awareness, student participation, community credibility, and access to organizations that already serve young people and families.

100 COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS. ONE STATEWIDE STUDENT MOVEMENT.

Four Outreach Categories

1. Student Distribution Partners - YMCA, Boys & Girls Clubs, libraries, youth nonprofits, PTAs and faith organizations. Ask them to put the opportunity directly in front of students and families.

2. Entrepreneurship & Education Partners - Junior Achievement, NFTE, Urban League and college entrepreneurship programs. Ask them to help develop and recruit young entrepreneurs and problem-solvers.

3. Business Community Partners - Chambers of Commerce, BIDs and merchant associations. Ask them to help open the doors of local businesses for student interviews and community problem discovery.

4. Awareness Partners - Major community organizations, media, elected officials and high-visibility platforms. Ask them to amplify the opportunity through newsletters, social media, websites and community communications.

Daily Fellow Workflow

Research

Identify 10-20 qualified organizations per day. Find the best partnership, youth-program, education, community-outreach or executive contact.

Record

Add organization name, website, contact person, title, email, phone, partner category and notes to the outreach tracker.

Personalize

Use the approved outreach template, but add 1-2 sentences explaining why that specific organization's mission aligns.

Send

Email the appropriate contact. Use a clear subject line such as: Community Partnership Opportunity - New York Statewide Student Impact Challenge.

Follow Up

Follow up after 3-5 business days if there is no response. Keep follow-ups polite and short.

Escalate Interest

If an organization expresses interest, immediately notify the program leadership so a partnership conversation can be scheduled.

Important Outreach Rules

- Do not promise sponsorship benefits, media exposure, exclusivity, financial arrangements, or official partnership status without approval.
- Do not describe a prospective organization as a partner until it has agreed.
- Do not pressure organizations for money. Community partnership can be non-financial.
- Keep all information about prizes, eligibility, dates and program rules consistent with approved program materials.
- Keep professional records of every contact and follow-up.
- When an organization is interested, move the conversation to program leadership rather than negotiating terms independently.
